USD THEATRE INTERCHANGE PROGRAM

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --A new theatrical interchange program between San Diego and Los Angeles starts in November through the University of San Diego and Loyola University, Los Angeles.

For the two nights of November 7 and 8 students from Loyola will visit San Diego to perform Advise and Consent, by Loring Mandel, based on the well known novel of Washington intrigue. Performances will be given in the theatre in the USD College for Women on the Alcala Park campus.

Kathleen Zaworski, chairman of the Theatre Department at the University said this will inaugurate a regular interchange between the two campuses.

The return visit will be made when students from USD go to Loyola in April to stage "The Member of the Wedding" by Carson McCullers, based on the author's novel of the same name.

Performances of this play will first be given on the USD campus March 28 and 29. All performances are open to the public, admission is $2.00 (students $1.50).
